In this instance a blunder to begin with, and recklessness addedon to it, crossed the destruction of a valuable ship and the less of nearly forty lives. But for the terribly tragic side of the incident, there would have been something almost ludierous in the circumstance of the ship running on the wrong side of the lighthouse, and striking on the reef well-nigh within stone's throw of the friendly beacon. Manifestly, there was no efficient look-out, and the swidence given before Mr. Rothery satisfied the Court that at the time the vessel struck the second officer was not on the bridge. Had he been there, probably he would have saved the ship. KWOR TAI MEE. P.S.—When you have brought the persons you must not take them to the village, so as to avoid trouble. You know that when you brought Ah Ching to the village that time it caused a great deal of trouble, although it was not your business. But you helped others to make money, that was all. Now, if you want to buy persons you get Tai Kum Mo and Ping Ah Nga Wee to buy them. Don't get sister Wan.

I know that your only object is to go home and see your children once. It is not my object to send you back. I borrowed this money for you. I have to pay interest for you which amounts to several hundred dollars. You know this vory well. I will not write any more new to you. If you come back, come soon. If you don't come back at all I will lose over half a thousand dollars.

When you receive it safely keep it in your possession, and when you see Mrs. Luk tell her to come to San Francisco as soon as she possibly can. Twice I sent $840 to her to get a grown person and a boy and girl, and I think that amount is enough for her. In case it is not enough, you please loan her a small amount for me. The most authentic descriptions given to the gan agree in attributing to it a carrying power beyoud that of any rifle heretofore in use. The models received in New York are not known to be accurate copies of the Lebel gan, and experiments with them are impossible, owing to the fact that the pewder used is a secret compound of which the French Government has the mono

According to all accounts, the Lebel gun will carry its bullet more than a mile and a half and with a more certain, aim than has been possible with ordinary rifles. The bore of the gun is very small and the ball, which is of steel and sharply pointed at the end, is said to revolve at a speed of a thousand revolutions a second. In the tests made by the French Government this bullet of course, a repeater, and the cartridges are so considered the maximum.

The French Government is now making these care for. guns at the rate of 500 a day at Saint Etienne, and is preparing to turn out double that number. Four factories, those at Chatellerault, Tulle and Saint Etienne, will soon be at work upon them.

With this in his mind he at once sought the best medical advice, telling the doctors how he had been attacked. They questioned him, and found that his present malady was exhaustion of the nervous system resulting from general debility, indigestion, and dyspepsia of a chronic nature. This in turn had been caused by confinement to his desk and grief at the less of dear friends by death. The coming on of this strange disease, as described by Mr. Richold, must be of interest both to sick and well. He had noticed FOR SWATOW, AMOY, AND FOOCHOW. for several years previously, in fact, that his eyes THE Company's Steamship and face began to have a yellow look; there was a sticky and unpleasant slime on the gums and teeth in the morning; the tongue coated; and the bowels so bound and costive that it induced that most painful and troublesome ailment—the NINE A.M. piles. He says there was some pain in the sides and back and a sense of fulness on the right aide
